

Anesthesia Pain Care Consultants Hosts 18th Annual Pain Symposium

Anesthesia Pain Care Consultants announced that it will host its 18th Annual Pain Symposium at the Coral Springs Marriott Heron Bay on Saturday, November 7, from 7 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. The conference is certified to offer continuing educational credits for CME, Nursing CEU, CRC, CDMS and CCM. There is no charge to invited guests.

The symposium has developed an outstanding reputation for providing important information on the diagnosis and treatment of chronic pain conditions. Attendees will include orthopedic surgeons, neurologists, neurosurgeons, rheumatologists, family medicine physicians, physiatrists, psychologists, attorneys, nurses, case managers, adjusters and other interested health care professionals.

The keynote speaker will be Standiford Helm, MD, MBA, DABPM, FIPP. He is the founder of The Helm Center in California. A graduate of Harvard College (magna cum laude) at Harvard University, and Tufts University, Dr. Helm is a Diplomate of the American Board of Anesthesiology, with a subspecialty certification in pain medicine. He has been practicing interventional pain management since 1982. Dr. Helm is a past president of the American Society of Interventional Pain Physicians (ASIPP). He serves in leadership positions with statewide and national pain management societies, and publishes and lectures extensively.

Other featured speakers include Jacob Lazarovic, MD, FAAFP, the Chief Medical Officer and Senior Vice President of Broadspire Services Inc., and Michael Coupland, CPsych, RPsych CRC, the CEO of IMCS Group, as well as a psychologist and vocational rehabilitation consultant. Additionally, Anesthesia Pain Care Consultants' Dr. Ira Fox, Dr. Cuneyt Ozaktay and Dr. Javier Vilasuso will discuss various pain management topics.

The conference is invitation only, however, for those interested in attending, please contact Curt Black or Pat Hopp at (954) 720-3188.
