

Monday, October 15, 2012

Tamarac Physician Ira Fox Named President Elect of the World Society of Pain Clinicians

Ira Fox, MD, DABPM, FIPP, ABIPP, founder of Anesthesia Pain Care Consultants in Tamarac, is the new President Elect of the World Society of Pain Clinicians (WSPC). Dr. Fox will hold this position for two years before he embarks on a two-year term as President of WSPC in 2014. Dr. Fox will then serve as the organization's Immediate Past-President from 2016 until 2018.

Founded more than 30 years ago, the WSPC was created to unite clinicians with a common interest in treating pain. The organization also aims to encourage scientific research on the treatment and clinical aspects of pain.

Dr. Fox has spent more than two decades treating patients with acute and chronic pain. He maintains board certifications with the American Board of Interventional Pain Physicians (ABIPP); World Institute of Pain – Fellow of Interventional Pain Practice (FIPP); American Board of Pain Medicine; and the American Board of Anesthesiology with added certification in Pain Management. Additionally, he serves as an examiner for the FIPP Board Certification and is the Chairman of the Advisory Board for the World Institute of Pain Executive Board. He has been named as one of South Florida's "Top Docs" by Gold Coast Magazine for the past seven years.

Dr. Fox attended medical school at the U.A. of Guadalajara in Guadalajara, Mexico and is bilingual. He completed his medical education at State University of NY at Stony Brook, NY. He completed his residency in anesthesiology at Monmouth Medical Center in N.J. where he was Chief Resident.