Neurosurgeon joins Anesthesia Pain Care Consultants

Robert M Levy, MD joins Ira Fox MD at APCC

[Tamarac, FL August, 2019] Robert M. Levy, MD, PhD, an internationally known neurosurgeon, has joined the South Florida medical practice of Anesthesia Pain Care Consultants.

"We are very pleased to have Dr. Levy become part of our medical team," said Ira Fox, MD, founder of Anesthesia Pain Care Consultants in Tamarac, FL. "His extensive medical experience and research will add yet another dimension to our range of care."

Dr. Levy is President of the Neuromodulation Society and has authored several textbooks and published 300 peer review journal articles. Dr. Levy most recently served as the founding director of the Marcus Neuroscience Institute and Director the Harvey Sandler Center for Neurosurgery in Boca Raton, FL.

His current research involves novel applications of neurostimulation and targeted drug delivery to the brain. In addition he has assisted with the design and implementation of multiple neuromodulation technologies and instruments.

For professionals who wish to get to know him, Dr. Levy will be the keynote speaker at the "by invitation" 22nd Annual Pain Symposium presented by Anesthesia Pain Care Consultants on Saturday October 26, 2019.

Anesthesia Pain Care Consultants is South Florida's Premier Interventional Pain Practice.
